DocPoint Solutions Appoints Justin Brown as Solutions Engineer

Fulton, Md. – May 27, 2009 – DocPoint Solutions, Inc. (www.docpointsolutions.com), a subsidiary of Quality Associates, Inc., focused on providing Microsoft® SharePoint® to organizations that are looking to expand employee collaboration and increase the exchange of information, today announced the hiring of Justin Brown as solutions engineer. In his new position, Brown will be responsible for all aspects of systems management and project development, including overall project supervision, troubleshooting, and the development and integration of new and specialized programs.

Prior to joining DocPoint, Brown served as a developer at Legg Mason Technology Services, a division of Legg Mason, where he specialized in the development and administration of the company's Microsoft SharePoint environment. Previously, he was a developer analyst for TEKSystems, where he worked as a subcontractor to Lockheed Martin's Information Technology Division.

"I am excited to be joining the dynamic and fast-growing team at DocPoint Solutions," said Brown. "The company is building a strong reputation as a local leader in implementing Microsoft SharePoint solutions, both in the region and throughout the U.S. Looking ahead, I will be assisting in the development and management of programs and solutions that will improve employee collaboration and help our clients work more effectively."

DocPoint Solutions Vice President Bob Dickerson said, "We are excited to have Justin joining DocPoint's staff. He will prove to be an important addition to our team, as he brings with him an extensive background in Microsoft's programs, including SharePoint. His knowledge and professionalism will establish him as a valuable resource for our clients."
